

France, Alpe d'Huez www.alpedhuez.com

The characteristically French resort of Alpe d'Huez has mile upon mile of brilliant skiing to suit every standard. It also has one of the best sunshine records in the Alps and thanks to its investment in 700 snow cannons, snow is virtually guaranteed whatever time of the season you travel.

Clubhotel Vallée Blanche

We are delighted to introduce the Vallée Blanche to our programme of Clubhotels. We've chosen this great hotel as it ticks all of the boxes required to make the grade as a SkiBound Clubhotel – a great location, comfortable safe secure accommodation and easy access to a world class ski area.

- Brand new Clubhotel
- Centrally located in Alpe d'Huez
- 4 minutes walk to ski lifts
- Ideal for large groups
- Easily accessible ski area
- Good quality accommodation
- Sleeps up to 160 guests

Skiing & snowboarding

Alpe d'Huez consists of seven different ski areas, each served by an excellent lift system, and offering up to 238 kms of varied piste.

For pretty, tree-lined runs head over to Vaujauny and Auris, and for a real challenge why not take on the 16km long black Sarenne run from the top of Pic Blanc (3300). Snowboarders will also be delighted with the 2 snowparks and immense variety of free-riding terrain available.

Après ski

- Large floodlit, outdoor ice-skating rink
- Bumboarding
- Karaoke night
- Disco night
- Flood lit night skiing and sledging on the 'Signal' run (free with Visalp lift pass)